

Important Notice for Policyholders

May 30th, 2023

A Credit Card processing error occurred on Sunday, May 28th resulting in Credit Card decline emails being sent to Members.

This was generated in error – please be advised that your credit card transaction likely processed successfully and will be applied to our systems within the next few days.

Please accept our sincerest apologies for this error.

You may want to check your credit card statement, but no further action is needed on your part at this time.

Thank you.

AAA Life Insurance Company