

Important Notice for Policyholders in Washington D. C.

Effective January 04, 2021

Our hearts go out to all those affected by the Coronavirus (COVID-19) pandemic.

AAA Life Insurance Company is taking steps to assist policyholders in states that are currently declared major disasters due to the virus.

During this difficult time, it is important for our customers to have peace of mind about their life insurance policies. AAA Life will provide policyholders living in the District of Columbia additional time to meet premium payment obligations, without fear of cancellation or other adverse action. Several options are available to you:

- You may elect to receive a 60-day grace period and a subsequent 12-month payment plan (payment plans to start after 3/31/21).
- You have the option to pay premiums via electronic funds transfers

If you have been affected by this disaster and need to discuss your options, we urge you to contact us by email, mail or telephone:
